

Wall - Paper.

Down, Down, Down
Goes the price of Wall Paper for the

* Next Thirty Days. *

It is necessary for us to reduce our present stock to make room for the new line which will be larger and better than any previous line shown in Yale.

Remember the place.

Holden's Drug Store.

Break Open Any Bunch.

Break open any bunch of Shingles you buy from us, and if you don't find them just as we represent them—the best Shingles for the money—no matter what kind or grade you buy—bring them in and get your money back. That's the way we do business.

White and Red Cedar and White Pine Shingles. Best grades and lowest prices.

HOLDEN LUMBER CO.

Take A Bellows
when you get home with that bulk coffee and blow the dirt and flies and foreign substances out of it. Then open a package of

Lion Coffee
see how clean and fresh it looks and note its rich aroma.
The sealed package insures uniform quality.

Re-Union
Sept. 10 and 11.
Salted baths at Windsor's barber shop.

Mrs. Lew Zavit has been on the sick list this week.

James Brown has started taking the school census of Yale.

The St. Clair County directory is now ready for distribution.

Walker & Middleton have treated their elevator to a fresh coat of paint.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Roy Fuller gave a pleasant party Tuesday evening in honor of their guests.

Buy your crockery, china and granite ware at the Racket. Quality the best, price the lowest.

A democratic paper will be soon started in Port Huron if reports are true. It will be a weekly.

A large lot of children's suits in many styles are being sold at a very low price at The Yale Clothing House.

You should remember that E. B. Fuller & Co. sell the celebrated Cereola flour at 60c per sack. It makes elegant white bread.

Dr. J. B. Stevens is building an addition to his veterinary hospital. The new compartments will give him plenty of room to operate in.

Mrs. M. H. Taylor has moved into the Rolls building, one door south of Post-office where she is displaying a fine stock of bazaar goods.

Mrs. Alice Guy desires to express her sincere thanks to all who so kindly assisted her and gave their sympathy in the time of her late bereavement.

A card from J. Q. Rood asks us to send his Expositor to Bad Axe. We noted some time ago, that the Professor had secured the principalship of the Bad Axe schools.

Wm. Blackford has purchased the old evaporator building and moved it to his lot north of the canning factory. He will remodel it and when completed will occupy it as a residence.

If it wasn't popular, if it wasn't loved by the people, why do dealers say? "We have something just as good as the Madison Medicine Co's. Rocky Mountain Tea." Think it over. 35 cents. Grant Holden.

Elder D. McCall has sold his farm near Imlay City and purchased A. E. Leavitt's place a mile and a quarter west of Yale. The Elder's many Yale friends will be pleased to learn that he will move his family here soon.

Ad changes
Cereola.
The Racket
G. C. Meisel
W. B. Ballentine
E. B. Fuller & Co.
Yale Furniture Co.
Palmer Bros. & Co.
Holden's Drug Store
Reavis & Hutchinson Lumber

Mrs. Henry Steinburg still continues very ill.

Don't forget the date of the re-union September 10 and 11.

The Sanilac County Times says that horse racing has been declared off in Peck.

New line of back combs at the Racket—choice of three different patterns for 10c each.

Marcia Beecher entertained a number of friends at tea Saturday evening in honor of her guests.

It is not necessary to go to the sea shore for a salt water bath. You can get one at Windsor's barber shop.

The Peninsular working shirts, jackets and overalls are the best fitting and will never rip. Always for sale at The Yale Clothing House.

The Teachers' Institute being held in Port Huron since Aug. 11, closed on Wednesday and those in attendance from Yale have returned home.

What will we burn this winter? In New York we read that the wholesale price of anthracite coal has jumped to $10 a ton for stove coal and $11 for egg.

The Democratic county convention for nominating county officers is set for Sept. 18. The Congressional convention will meet in Port Huron August 27.

There is a pretty girl in an alpine hat, a sweeter girl in a sailor brim, but the handsomest girl you'll ever see is the sensible girl who uses Rocky Mountain Tea. Grant Holden.

A. E. Leavitt this week purchased the new house on Kennebec street now in the course of construction by A. Depeel and will occupy it when completed. Henry Pearce is doing the carpenter work.

In a letter from J. W. Robinson, who is spending the summer at Mason, he mentions the fact that himself and wife are the proud parents of a baby boy, born on the 8th. We offer congratulations and trust the child may live to be a blessing and honor to his parents.

A small company of neighbors and friends gathered at the residence of Frank VanCamp Monday evening by invitation of Mrs. VanCamp, to do honor to Frank's birthday. Several social hours were enjoyed. A handsome tobacco jar and pipe were presented Mr. VanCamp, along with many happy returns of the day.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkins is book-keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co. For sale by Grant Holden.

Baths, either hot or cold at Windsor's barber shop. Try one.

Try the Racket for stationery of all kinds. Largest and best tablet in the state for 5c.

If you are looking for the new things in collars and ties you will not be disappointed when you call at The Yale Clothing House.

Makes the fires of life burn with a steady glow. Renews the golden, happy days of youth. That's what Rocky Mountain Tea does. 35 cents. Grant Holden.

The Yale Canning Co. is building a neat brick business office on their property. Manager Staff has been busy the past week placing the machinery to take care of the corn crop.

A number of the young people of the village indulged in a corn roast and watermelon feast in the grove Monday night. It goes without saying that a splendid good time was enjoyed.

Wm. H. McKenzie, representing the Port Huron Bridge Company, was in Yale Tuesday night on his way to Roseburg where he expected to place one of their iron bridges in position across Black river by moonlight.

A couple named Newton Lord and Jennie Helper were married in an Eastern Kentucky town some days ago and the editor of the local paper was almost clubbed to death by the indignant groom because he made use of the heading Lord-Helper.

A. E. Leavitt, having sold his farm, will offer for sale at public auction at the premises one and a half miles west of Yale, on Wednesday, September 3, all of his farming implements, stock, etc. Sale to commence at one o'clock p. m. sharp. W. W. Lord, auctioneer.

Mrs. Eva Black was quite sick the first of the week, but is improved and with her sister Carrie Clark went to Detroit on Thursday, where they will spend the next two weeks in the wholesale millinery houses, studying the fall styles and buying stock for the fall trade.

The little pony and pet in A. E. Jackson's family for the past 14 years, familiarly known as Dock, died at the old homestead in Greenwood last Tuesday. Both Dr. Stevens and son did everything in their medical skill for him, but it was of no use. It must have been Old Dock's time to die.

Dr. Warner Cornell, Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialist, of 229 Huron ave., over Knill's drug store, Port Huron, will be at "The Paisley" Hotel Yale, the second Friday of each month where he can be consulted on diseases of above organs only. Glasses fitted. His next visit will be Friday, Sept. 12th. He will be in his Port Huron office every day in the month except Fridays.

Last week we received a letter from Lewis Bow, of West Duluth, Minn., which contained one year's subscription to the Expositor, also the following information:—"I read an account of my death in your paper recently. I feel very much alive and am hustling every day for the Cornplanter Oil Co., and weigh 165 lbs." Lewis' many friends in Yale will be pleased to learn that the report of his being killed in a saw mill, which was circulated around town a few weeks ago, is untrue.

IT STILL CONTINUES.

Palmer Bros. & Co.'s First Annual 9 Sale.

Positively Closes Saturday, August 30th.

For a more complete list of sale prices consult last week's ad or ask us for a list of our advertised bargains. We are selling cheap, and now is your time for making money saving purchases. All of our former advertised prices hold good until Aug. 30th. These prices are for extra bargains and for the day advertised only.

Monday's Special.

Breakfast Foods.
2 packages any Food.....25c

Tuesday's Special.

Cotton.
10 yards Father George.....49c
10 yards Camden.....39c

Wednesday's Special.

Canned Goods.
3 cans String Beans.....25c
3 cans selected Apples.....25c
3 cans Baked Beans.....25c

Thursday's Special.

22 lbs. Granulated Sugar for $1.00 with $1.50 grocery order. Flour not included.

Friday's Special.

Shirts.....
Any Man's or Boy's 50c Shirt in the store.....39c

Two Saturdays' Specials.

August 23 and Aug. 30.

For these two days, any print for.....5c per yard

This is our Tree.

"The man who whispers down a well
About the goods he has to sell,
Will ne'er receive as many callers,
As he who climbs a tree and hollers."

We invite you to come.

Palmer Bros. & Co.

A Good Place To Trade.

This Bank

Is designed for all: the poor and the rich, the old and the young—men and women—all are welcome. We pay a per cent. interest on savings accounts and receive deposits of 25 cents and upward.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
YALE, MICH.

SECURITY
FOR DEPOSITORS,
$80,000.00.

This bank is under United States supervision.

SHOES...

We wish to call your especial attention to our complete line of Shoes for

Ladies, Children,
Girls, Boys and Men.

We have them fine and coarse, and to suit all kinds of feet. Lace and button, high heel and low heel, square toe and round toe, all at prices to suit your purse.

WAISTINGS:

The Ladies should not fail to see our new and novel patterns for fall waists. They are the latest that the eastern markets afford and cannot fail to suit your fancy.

Phone 3-3 Rings.

Yours truly,

E. B. FULLER & CO.

MASONIC BLOCK,

YALE,

MICH.